SECOND TO MOM'S COOKING

The great homemade recipes of Pam Schmidt, Director of Dining Services, help students, like Margaret Rogers, adjust to life away from home.

WELCOME TO MANHATTAN

It seems the best way to the students is through their stomachs. Area churches host numerous potluck dinners to get acquainted. Advertise food and they will come.

Six months before the students come on campus, preparations for new student orientation and registration begin. Under the leadership of Lisa Smith, discipleship group leaders, STUCO officers, resident assistants, and the staff of the student development office come together for training and planning.

Everyone is responsible for building the MCC community and encouraging students to get involved in their area of giftedness. Discipleship is a key ingredient to student life here at MCC and these campus leaders are responsible for organizing, leading, and evaluating a group of students.

The foundation for a successful year--accountability, love, worship, respect, and growing together in God's word--is established within the first 48 hours a student arrives on campus. Orientation activities are designed to be the relationship building and the fun needed to get everything started on the right foot.

REGISTRATION DAY

Lauren Heskett, Assistant Registrar, helps to answer questions as students complete their registration. This is the last stop before students have to write the big tuition check.

We'll Leave Our Light On For You

"The people living in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned." Matthew 5:16

GETTING STARTED

The Student Development Office organizes and hosts the orientation events with the help of the resident assistants and discipleship group leaders.

PERSONAL ATTENTION

Whether they like it or not, each student meets one-on-one with an academic counselor. It seems to be all good news for Rachel Schmelze and Randy Ingmire.

WILL IT ALL FIT??

Tricia Martens and her roommate Melissa Otis laugh and try to imagine where all of their belongings are going to fit in this, their new home.

CHAPEL ON THE LAWN

Student Greg Schmidt presents the first keynote sermon during the week of orientation on the STUCO theme of light.

Student Council

HAVING FUN

Student Council works hard to ensure that all of the MCC students smile and enjoy themselves as soon as they come on campus.

READY FOR ANYTHING

Jamie Lamberson and Shon Daniels are dressed and ready to enjoy the evening.

CHRISTMAS BANQUET

Alicia Dickerson, Meghan Refner, Jessica Weast, and Jennifer Wetherell look beautiful for the Christmas Banquet held at the Ramada Inn.

HATS AND BOOTS EVERYWHERE
Jon Wren and Becki Herrington enjoyed a dance at the annual Barn Party held at the Swiharts' Barn.

ENCOURAGEMENT DAY

Yellow smiley-face balloons and Mentos for everyone on campus. Melissa Blasing, Lindsay Anthis, and Annie Lewis were happy to help.

BARN PARTY ACTIVITY

It's a rootbeer chugging contest between Josh Hough, Andy Wilson, Cliff Bragg, and Robin Renner. No one knows who won but everyone laughed.

MCC campus leaders helped recruit high school student leaders as STUCO committees staffed a booth at the Information Fair during Timothy Days. Committee members answered questions about the opportunities to be leaders on campus. Timothy Days is the most popular and most important event in solidifying a commitment to come to MCC. Designed to recognize and reward the personal leadership of high school students that have been recommended by their youth ministers, Timothy Days is a weekend of interviews and seminars.

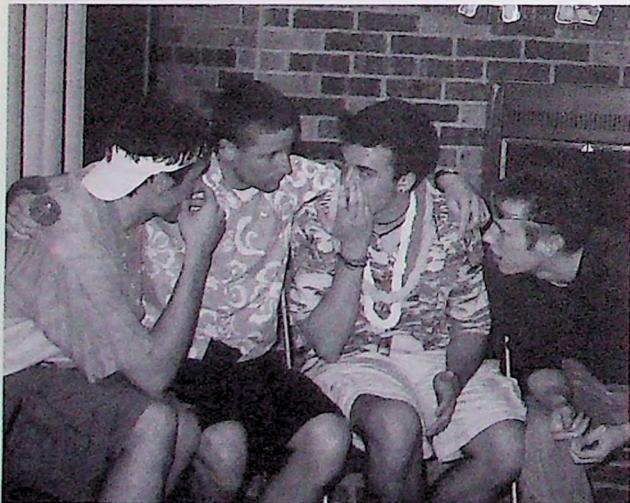

Student council, the voice of the students and the pocketbook for student fees spent throughout the year, works closely with the student development office to develop effective student programming. Officers as well as representatives from each class are elected each year and committee heads are appointed to serve. The committees include Student Spiritual Life, Student Activities, Community Service, Outreach, and Student Encouragement.

This year STUCO members spent time and money on the Barn Party, Kerusso Days, Christmas Banquet, Luau, Skip Day, Faculty/Staff Appreciation Week, Spring Break Mission Trips, and Spring Banquet. In addition, financial support was given to class events, yearbook, a Compassion Child, and the Gond People.

STUCO attracts student leaders and serves as practical training for students who want to learn more about leadership and service.

FUND RAISING FOR MISSION TRIPS

Jessica Wilhelm is one of the many students who helped to clean KSU Bramlage Coliseum five times in an effort to raise the money needed for the spring break mission trips.

LUAU GAME SHOW

Andy Wilson, Aaron Bates, Andy Reimer, and Daniel Barnes work together to come up with the best answer for Battle of the Sexes.

MILLION DOLLAR QUESTIONS

Luau emcee Matt Barnes hosted the game between the guys and gals. The men were crowned as the winners.

MAKING IT ALL SOUND GOOD

Houston Cook-McCarter (with Cory Tubbs behind) helps the chapel worship team sound good. STUCO funds keep the sound system operational.

KERUSSO DAY PROJECT

Amy Anderson, Lacey Saxton, Tricia Martens, Kamala Gurney, Jessy Bluvan, Annie Lewis, Darlene Kaufman, and Kahla Atherton serve together.

CHRISTMAS BANQUET

Patty Ciara and Jennifer Beckman enjoy the special evening including dinner and dancing at the Ramada Inn.

FACULTY/STAFF APPRECIATION

David Cook, Lacey Saxton, Valerie Hetrick, and Jordanne Bonfield work the grill at the appreciation dinner held at Tuttle Creek.

Student Council

Serving as student government and student advocates; planning student activities

SONOYTA, MEXICO

Team leaders Kyle Rodell and Marci Dodge led 13 students to help the church complete assorted building projects and assist with a VBS.

HARD WORK

Melissa Blasing, Aaron Slemp, Heather Woodward, Ben Thornley, and Jessy Bluvan helped with building projects in Saltillo, Mexico.

SURROUNDED BY CHILDREN

Renee Post was one of 15 students who went to help in Chicago's inner-city schools.

SONOYTA TEAM WITH FRIENDS

Amanda Best, Amanda Harden, Jessie Jamison, Krystal Spence, Brett Jensen, Marci Dodge, Bethany Bates, and Leslie Shirrell had fun at the beach after the work was done.

Spring Break Mission Trips

Chicago, Ecuador, Saltillo and Sonoyta, Mexico

CHICAGO TEAM BUILDING

Darlene Kaufman, Annie Lewis, Will Mitchell, Steffon Staley, Dusty Sowards, Kammy Gurney, Matt Macha, Michelle Edwards, and Julie Nelson enjoy ice cream after tutoring inner-city students.

Forty-eight MCC students used their week off school to be on for the Lord. The students did all the organizing and planning necessary to put these Spring Break trips together and raised all the funds to be able to go. These four groups accomplished a number of tasks in just a short amount of time.

Short-term mission trips benefit both the participants and the missionaries they serve. The participants get a real-life look at life on the mission field as well as an introduction to another culture. Each trip broadens the students world-view as well as gives them an opportunity to practice basic evangelism. The missionaries receive personal encouragement and much needed extra volunteer hands for special projects and special events.

These trips are something to celebrate in the short-term but offer a greater glimpse of future ministries.

CONSTRUCTION IN ECUADOR

Kelly Reimer and Jeremy Wright help to put on the roof of a new church building. They also led VBS and shared their testimonies.

MCC MAKES FRIENDS IN ECUADOR

Jeremy Wright, Patty Ciarla, Evie Krenzin, Darci Jeanneret, Alicia Buchholz, David Boeding, Joe Zizz, and Kelly Reimer with new friends.

"TA-DA!"

A fun life lesson that was shared by Liz is demonstrated by some of the 1,000 attendees enjoying this year's conference held at the KSU Union.

LAUGHTER AND SCRIPTURE

After three years of anticipating her appearance, the largest audience ever to attend Woman's World enjoys author and speaker Liz Curtis Higgs.

Cat Oettinger and MCC graphic designer Sarah Blair were a couple of the many smiling faces that helped to make conferees feel at home during their time in Manhattan.

Always held the last full weekend in February, Woman's World provides MCC an opportunity to take her mission of educating, equipping, and enriching Christian leaders outside the traditional classroom.

The majority of the attendees came from Kansas, but Missouri, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Colorado, Texas, Indiana, Arizona, Illinois, Minnesota, Kentucky, Mississippi, and Iowa also had representatives.

A free will offering, collected during the Saturday luncheon is an integral part of the Woman's World tradition. Since 1984, this offering has been awarded the following year as scholarships to deserving female students for their next academic year at MCC.

SPECIAL DONATION ADDED TO SCHOLARSHIP OFFERING

Darca Ridley of Milford, KS, designed, crafted, and donated a stained glass window of a hot air balloon for a Silent Auction. Woman's World is something she looks forward to every year; she has attended more than 10 years.

26th Annual Woman's World

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Lindsay Anthis, Jennifer Beckman, Lynette Brax, Marcy Dodge, Lana Enfield, and Laura Miles are introduced by Melanie Horton.

VOLUNTEERS BRING SUCCESS

MCC women contribute many hours to this ministry. Lisa Ingram organized the stage decorations and the table decorations.

CONTEMPORARY WORSHIP

LEAD alumnus Lori Devaney, along with Testify and Boomer Fishbeat from Westlink Christian Church led the praise time.

PICK UP YOUR NAME TAG

The large registration caused the conference to be held in the KSU Union. Conferees chose among 23 practical seminars and Bible studies to attend.

LEAVING FOR THE WAR

Mark and Bethany Grimsley share a special evening before Mark leaves for Iraq.

IT'S ALL IN THE ACTIONS

It wouldn't be a party without signing the all-time favorite of Y.M.C.A. by the Village People.

REMEMBERING THE EVENING
Seth Taylor helps to capture a memory for Stacy Beougher and Jessie Jamison on the beautiful staircase of the KSU Alumni Center.

Pam Mealiff, Bethany Bates, Sionnie Modic, and Melissa Otis enjoy the good food, candles, white lights, and greenery at "A Midsummer Night's Dream," the 2003 spring banquet.

With or without a date, this event was a must for all of the students who want to cap off the year with special memories. The program included dinner, dancing, a picture presentation of the year, and the announcement of the STUCO officers for the next academic year.

Highlights of the evening also included the presentation of three student awards chosen by the faculty. Patty Ciarla and Chris Ensley received the Servant Heart Award. Bethany Grimsley and Jeff and Heather Martens were recipients of the Young Crusader Award. The President's Award was given to Jordanne Bonfield and Jon Wren.

Sleep: A rare moment for Eli Sweany.

If you ever want to know what it's like to have brothers, come and live in Johnson Hall for a while. Here the new MCC men learn a lot about themselves while they make friends, study, and give one another a hard time. Although it is hard to find peace and quiet, the relationships built will last a lifetime. The lifetime ministry of an MCC male alumnus begins with the lessons he learns in Johnson Hall.

Johnson Hall Highlights:

- Dorm devotions on Monday nights
- Job checks on Thursday nights
- Floor functions
- Outdoor barbecues
- Christmas party
- Movie night
- Dorm softball game
- Royals game field trip

FOOD ALWAYS DRAWS A CROWD
Cliff Bragg, C.J. Fox, Barrett Case, Ken Rutt, Dan Howell, and Derek Maris are enjoying a snack and getting ready for a movie night.

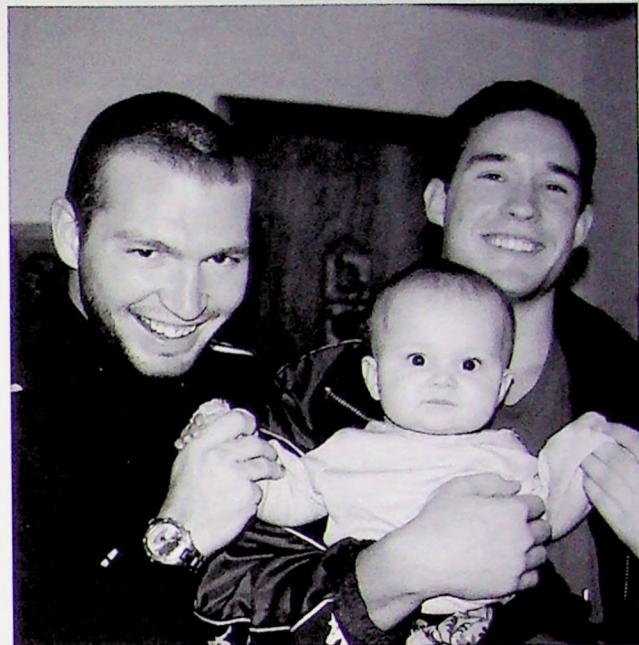

JC PENNEY CATALOG HERE WE COME
Resident assistants Derek Maris, John Zizz, Barrett Case, C.J. Fox, Kyle Rodell, Michael Gonzales, and dorm dad Josh Longenecker ham it up.

VIDEO/COMPUTER GAMES
Relaxation, fun, wasting time—all types of video and computer games are the biggest source of entertainment. Craig Patrick and Tony Pavelka seem to be winning.

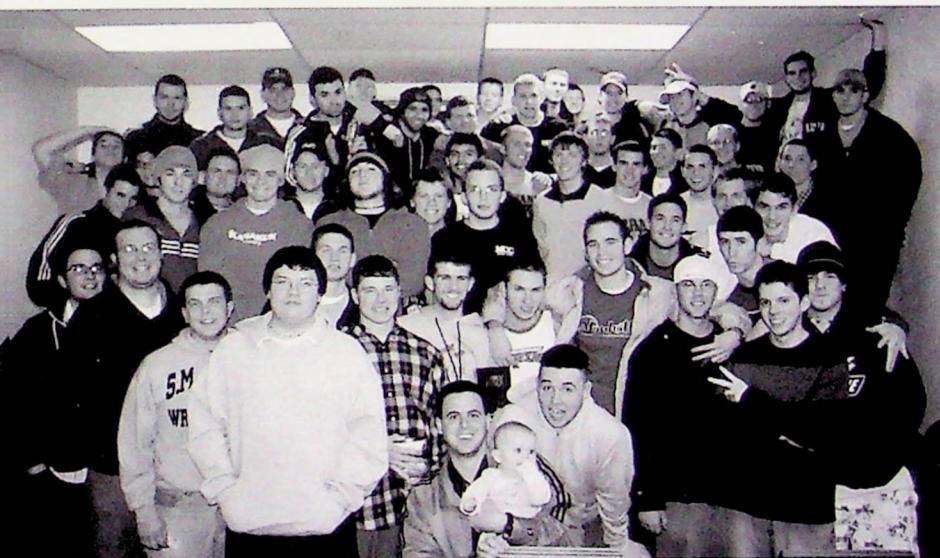

LONGENECKERS HOST COOK-OUT
The weather is nice and the hamburgers taste great from the grill. The Longeneckers help everyone feel at home with a few picnics.

ADDISON GETS THE ATTENTION
Kyle Rodell and Brett Busenitz share the spotlight with the only baby doll living in Johnson Hall. Addison Longenecker (6 months old) has quite the fan club.

COMPUTER FRIENDS?
Everyone might not have a computer in his room, but it seems that everyone knows someone with a computer in his room. Ryan Schmidt thinks about sharing his.

WE'RE ALL HERE
Johnson Hall is home to 56 underclassmen plus the Longenecker family of three.

Johnson Hall

More than a place to live . . .

THE FEARLESS LEADERS

Resident assistants Haley Valentine, Angie Epps, Meaghan Smith, Terri Pecenka, Dee-Anna Nelson, Pam Meallif, Una Henry, Sionnie Modic, Johnna Renner, and Stephanie Mansker hold things together and keep planning the activities.

CREATIVITY IS KEY

Stephanie Mansker and Lauren Heidebrech take time out to modge podge picture frames—just one of the craft projects completed in their suite lounge this year.

DORM CHICK

Terri Pecenka, otherwise known as "Dorm Chick," leads the way with fun and frolic for all the gals in the dorm.

ALL 56 OF US

Everyone is all together once a week during Monday night dorm devotions. Come dressed comfortably and stay tuned for the worship and devotions.

Kenoyer Hall...

Where girls can be girls, with no boys allowed!

I LOVE ROCK AND ROLL

Is it a sweet serenade or hard rock entertainment during one of the famous Kenoyer Hall parties? Bethany Bates, Leslie Shirell, and Jessie Jamison will never tell.

Never a dull moment in Kenoyer Hall--just ask TeRee Ford, Dominique Marts, and Renee Post. In this home away from home, girls laugh a lot, cry on each other's shoulder a little, stay up late, party in the suite lounges, decorate their rooms, study occasionally, paint fingernails, worship together, enjoy movies, share secrets, eat, and sometimes sleep. Kenoyer Hall is a comfortable place to live and learn to be yourself.

Kenoyer Hall Highlights:

- Monday night dorm devotions
- Thursday night job checks
- Craft projects
- Numerous suite functions
- Christmas caroling around the neighborhood
- Christmas decorating party
- Christmas movie night
- Village Inn for hot cocoa
- Spring cookout

NEW FRIENDSHIPS

Susan Henry, Darlene Kaufman, Margaret Rogers, and Julianne Reid laugh together in front of Kenoyer Hall.

COMFY AFTER CLASS

Amanda Van Dalsem, Kathryn Franz, Abby Castelli relax in front of the TV as they catch up on each other's day.

UMMM FOOD . . .

Pam Schmidt serves Bob Leonard ('74), Arletta Paddock, Dr. Wes Paddock, Dr. Donn Leach, and Rebekah Johnson.

IN THE BEGINNING . . .

Chairman of the Board, Glenn Short, kicked off the year-long 75th Anniversary Celebration with a reception on campus.

MCC 1927-2002 Abounding in the Work of the Lord

"Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord."

--1 Corinthians 15:58

Diamond celebrations were the big news in 2002-2003 for Manhattan Christian College. More than 1,200 alumni, trustees, and friends of the college joined the faculty, staff, and students in a variety of 75th anniversary celebrations held across the United States. Many made the trip to be on campus for a reunion in October. Among those was Dr. Charles Cook (class of '84), who challenged the celebration dinner audience by reviewing the college's past and suggested the course she needs to take in the future. Unveiled at the banquet were the book, Abounding in the Work of the Lord: The History of Manhattan Christian College, authored by Ray Stites (class of '68), and an original watercolor print capturing the MCC story by artist Mary Hall.

THE PARTY!

Melanie Horton ('98) listens intently to Kevin Ingram ('86) but Phyllis Cable seems skeptical.

MCC Birthday

75 Years of Training Christian Leaders

HISTORIANS

Ray Stites ('68), author of MCC's history book; Mary Hall, painter of a pictorial history; and Kenneth Cable ('58), president since 1981 were recognized at the banquet.

SPOKEN WITH TRUTH

Hiram Cassel, long-time administrator and professor, spoke to the alumni, faculty, and staff.

SPEAK IT

Dr. Charles Cook ('48) presented the keynote address at the 75th Anniversary Celebration Dinner.

FOREWORD

Current students, Shelby Crawford and Ryan Weyrauch, teamed up with Matt McFarren ('02) and Matt Miles ('95) for the annual Golf Classic.

Chapel Time

FAITHFUL STEWARDS

Amy Anderson, Lynette Brax, Robin Renner, and Jennifer Wetherell participate in one of the offerings collected for mission trips, the Gond people, and special needs.

OFFERING PRAISE TO GOD

Rebecca Thompson helps to lead the audience in praise and worship.

SPECIAL TALENT

The violin was a special treat in chapel. Lauren Heidebrecht was the only student who played the violin as part of a worship team.

SCRIPTURE READING

Julienne Reid and Stephanie Dewitt follow along as the speaker reads from the Bible.

GIVING FOR GOD'S KINGDOM
Jordanne Bonfield, chapel coordinator for the year, was responsible for counting and depositing the offering.

LET'S SING PRAISES
Derek Maris played bass with several worship teams that led in chapel on a regular schedule.

HEART OF WORSHIP
Chris McLaughlin helped coordinate music for all the chapel services for the year.

Matt 4:14
"You are the light of the world."

Organized totally by the students and the Student Development Office, chapel services were held each Tuesday and Thursday morning at 10:15 in Jolliffe Hall. Chapel provided an opportunity for the college as a community to come together and worship.

People from the area, missionaries, and college personnel presented messages to challenge students to grow in their faith.

A variety of student bands took turns leading the worship time. At the end of the year, students were asked to name their favorite worship songs and these made the top 10 list:

- I Can Only Imagine
- Here I Am to Worship
- Those Who Trust in the Lord
- God of Wonders
- Unashamed Love
- Amazing Grace
- You are Holy
- The Wonderful Cross
- Your Love is Amazing
- Victory Chant

HANGING OUT WITH THE GUYS
Russel Green, Dustin Schultz, Jesse James, Ben Thornley, Kory Pedersen, Jeremy Hall, and Mark Smith.

Spiritual growth, fellowship, and community are important focuses in a student's life outside of the classroom. Small groups, chapel, and special friendships provide the basis for personal nurture and spiritual development.

Freshmen and sophomore students are assigned a Monday night discipleship group led by upper-classmen. Juniors, seniors, and non-traditional students are encouraged to participate in a FAST Group (Faculty/Staff And Student Time). Both types of small groups build strong friendships and make special memories through regular activities and special events.

MALE BONDING

LOVE. LEARN. LIVE.

Singing praises to God under the leadership of Chris McLaughlin is part of preparing for the challenges presented in the celebrations.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

David Cook drives on one of the Prison Ministry trips to Topeka, Hutchinson, and the law enforcement center in Riley County.

SMILES SHARED AMONG FRIENDS

Under the leadership of Robin Renner nine students share God's love each week with the elderly and bring music and cheer to their lives.

Called to Serve Special Needs

Alabaster Project, Prison Ministry, Nursing Home Ministry, Worship Teams

PRESENTING THE CHALLENGE

MCC alumnus Amanda Bazil communicates the love of Christ, and ultimately how to live like Him, in one of the main sessions of the alabaster weekend.

Band members Daniel Roach and Jeremy Landis helped to present the gospel throughout the state as they led worship at youth events.

Contemporary worship--the band and the choruses they lead-- is a key ingredient for a successful youth event. Knowing this, churches of all sizes contact MCC and request a group to come and help lead their group. This year Jeremy Landis and Chris McLaughlin led the worship teams on the road.

Although the members of the band changed regularly the worship team ministry was a success at youth events in Abilene, Oakley, Wichita, Kansas City, and at the alabaster weekend.

PRISON MINISTRY TEAM

SPENDING TIME TOGETHER

Every Tuesday afternoon as part of the Nursing Home Ministry, Sara Keller and Rebecca McQuilliams shared special visits with the residents at Stoneybrook Retirement Community.

SMILE!!

Patrick and Jessica Talbert smile for the camera with Doug, JoAnn, and Emily Pillard. Graduation is time for a family celebration.

CONGRATULATIONS

Shawn Baird congratulates classmate Dave Boeding before the ceremony begins. It won't be long until Shawn will be joining him as an alumnus.

Graduation is a time for pictures and Nathan Fiedler wants to remember every moment. He is caught here capturing the day on his digital camera.

Commencement closes the 75th anniversary academic year of MCC. It is a full day--rehearsal, the alumni luncheon, class photo, commencement, and receptions. The commencement ceremony itself is held in Forum Hall of the KSU Student Union. Darin Scates, MCC class of 1982, presented the commencement address and challenged the students to make a ripple with their one and only life.

The class of 2003 (86 strong) is one of the largest in the history of the college. A group photo listing all of the names of those participating in commencement will join the other groups of alumni already hanging in the hallway of Coffin Memorial Hall.

ALUMNI LUNCHEON

Kevin Ingram organizes and hosts a luncheon for the graduates and their families every year. Here the students graduating with academic honors receive their honor cords and all of the graduates are encouraged to share their future plans.

Commencement 2003

Many thought this day would never come; it's time to enjoy the fruit of years of labor.

SAY CHEESE . . .

Becki Herrington, Abby Spence, Anna Seehorn, and Sarah King pose as a group for one last photo.

WAITING IN THE WINGS

Ms. Beddow and Mrs. Bertha Coffin await the start of the ceremony. Mrs. Coffin, a member of the Board of Trustees, will hand out the diplomas.

EXCITEMENT OR APPREHENSION?

Eric Ingmire, Darci Jeanneret, and Tim McDaniel get ready to line up for the march of the graduates.

BOTH GRADUATES

Amy Nelson, class of 2002, congratulates her husband, Josh, on his 2003 accomplishment. Now that they are both MCC graduates God could call them anywhere.

Unspoken Message

Drawing others into worship as they praise God by proclaiming his powerful messages through the creativity of dance and pantomime

WEEKLY REHEARSAL

Practices for this gospel team are held at the City Park Dance Studio, in the evening, one to two times a week for about two hours.

POWERFUL INTERPRETATION

Under the leadership of creative Michelle Neugebauer, the music comes alive as the group dances to interpret the messages of worship songs.

2003-2004 ENSEMBLE

This year's group members are Renee Post, Michelle Neugebauer, Rachel Olson, Alicia Dickerson, and Becki Herrington.

WOMAN'S WORLD PERFORMANCE

Able to reach many different ages and groups of people, Unspoken Message ministers to a large audience at Woman's World every year.

VETERAN PERFORMER

Director Rebekah Johnson prepares for a Sunday School Easter lesson in Rossville, KS. The team also made trips to Morrowville and Burlington, KS and Burlington, CO.

CHURCH STAGE

A Different View

Dramatizing the Gospel and today's Christian life for churches and youth groups across the state

Campus visitors are coming. Jeff Davis helps to take care of the final details.

Everyone knows that Manhattan Christian College needs students. The Admissions Department is charged with recruiting those students, but the recruiting staff members cannot do it alone.

Each year the department issues a call for students who want to represent the college on and off campus. Many students, parents, and donors have been introduced to MCC through meeting an Event Staff member while participating at an activity on or off campus.

Event staff members are servants. They set up everything for an event, help wherever needed during the event, and stay to clean up after the event. The challenge comes as they must do this all with a Christian attitude.

During this school year they worked Fall Festival of Faith, Ministry Career Day, Senior Visit Days, Timothy Days, Open House, and Bible Bowl Tournament.

FIRST STOP

Alumni, Joel and Joy Dyer, check in their teens that they brought to Fall Fest with Sarah Froelich.

DO WHAT?

YOU WILL LIKE CAMPUS LIFE

During the Ministry Fair staff members, like Josh Longenecker of the Student Development Department, describe campus life.

12, 11, 10, 9 . . .

The annual Bible Bowl Tournament requires many hours of work. Kahla Atherton watches the time while keeping score for a match.

WILL YOU TEACH ME TO PREACH?

CAMP TEAM SEND-OFF

Camp team alumni and their families gather for a BBQ and to encourage this year's teams before their 8-week experience began.

TRAVELING TROUPE WILL HAVE FUN

Craig Patrick, Pam Mealiff, Amy Anderson, and Cliff Bragg will end their summer camp experiences on a short mission trip in Mexico.

MOBILE MESSAGE

Haley Valentine gets final instructions from her mom as the camp teams head out. Cell phones will be the best way to communicate.

READY FOR ACTION

Holly Helmers, John Lawson, Luke Wright, and Haley Valentine are ready to corral the campers this summer.

The Ministry of Camp Team

Representing Christ and MCC in Christian service camps and CIY conferences

CAMP TEAM PICNIC

Together with the alumni, the camp teams sang, played games, and shared stories of how God will use them in this ministry.

It's time to leave for the first week of camp--Holly Helmers, John Lawson, Craig Patrick, and Amy Anderson sit down together one last time before they get in a van to drive to their first destination.

Under the direction of Constance Black, the camp teams have met once a week for training throughout the spring semester. As representatives of the college who will be working with thousands of different students and numerous camp deans, flexibility has been the most important lesson. The MCC camp teams have a tremendous reputation for staying on task as part of the camp staff and in touch with the campers. They are trained to do whatever needs to be done with smiles on their faces.

This year's teams will log more than 12,000 miles as they serve in Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri, Oklahoma, Colorado, Arizona, California, Illinois, Florida, and Mexico.

MAKING MCC COME ALIVE

Stephanie Mansker, Michael Berg, Ben Thornley, and Kahla Atherton are ready to "be" the college for anyone they meet.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

The camp teams will set up an MCC display at least eight times in different locations.

LEAD BY EXAMPLE

Mark Smith, one of the captains for the soccer team, controls the ball and the game for the Crusaders during one of the home games this year.

GOT SKILLS

Luke Wright takes a touch on the ball and controls the ball as he prepares to attack the opposing teams defense.

The Legacy Continues

Men's Soccer

The men's soccer team wrapped up another great season with a 21-4-1 record. The team won its regional tournament for the fifth straight year. Eric Ingmire, Scott Long, Kyle Rodell, Dusty Schultz, Mark Smith, Cory Tubbs, and Luke Wright made the NCCAAII Central All-Region team. Joe Schutte was named the MVP of the region, and Rick Wright was named coach of the year.

The guys made their fifth straight trip to the national NCCAA Division II championship tournament in Kissimmee, Florida. The Crusaders won their first game 5-0 over Grace University. In the next game against Bible Baptist College Dusty Schultz and Quenton Berner scored the goals in a 2-1 come-from-behind win. In the national championship game the team lost to Northland Baptist College who has won five of the last six years team. Three MCC players were named to the Adidas All-America Team for 2002: Kyle Rodel, Mark Smith, and Joe Schutte.

CAN'T STOP ME

Brett Busenitz keeps the ball away from a defender, while he looks to find a teammate to pass to.

TIME TO SCORE

A Season of Success

Women's Soccer

2003 was the fourth season for this up-and-coming Lady Crusader soccer team. Due to a limited number of nearby Christian colleges with soccer programs, the schedule included liberal arts colleges, junior colleges and nationally ranked NAIA schools--a pretty big feat for a team in its fourth season of existence. However, the team found ways to score.

The difficult schedule gave the women an opportunity to play hard and measure their success not by wins and losses, but by the hundreds of smaller victories that took place on the field. They have also been blessed by numerous opportunities to witness and share the love of Christ--a challenge that always includes victories. So in the area of wins, the Lady Crusaders tied three games, lost three games, and were shy a mere one point in three grueling overtime losses. In the big picture the Lady Crusaders have added yet one more season of hard work and dedication to their growing program of success.

Volleyball

Bump, set, and spike to victory

The 2002 volleyball team had an excellent year, with a very young team. The team had no seniors, yet the ladies posted an overall record of 17-11. They finished third in regular season conference play with a record of 9-5. They improved on that at the conference tournament by finishing in second place, losing to the regular season champion in the championship match. The ladies also had a strong showing at the regional tournament where they finished in third place.

These finishes were the highest for an MCC team since the 1999 season. Junior Lindsay Anthis received numerous individual honors, being named the MVP of the conference and the region plus being named second team All-American. Junior Lynette Brax also received recognition, making both Second Team All-Conference and Second Team All-Region.

CONCENTRATION

With one eye on the ball and one eye on the opponent, Lindsay Anthis sets up the next play for the Lady Crusaders.

GOOD PASS

Julie Taylor bumps a high pass back into the court where the team is waiting to hit it over the net.

READY SET

Setter Lynette Brax controls the ball and gives a good pass for her team.

Men's Basketball

Record Setting Year

The Manhattan Christian College men's basketball team came into this season with high hopes after placing fourth in the previous year's national tournament. Things did not go as planned when they began the year with a 1-3 record and tough road losses. The team continued to struggle against teams from higher divisions. At semester, the Crusaders sat with a disappointing 5-7 record and another tough stretch of games ahead.

Then the Crusaders traveled to Cookson Hills for the annual midseason tournament. This was the turning point for the Crusaders as they won 17 games in a row. For the second straight season, MCC went undefeated in conference play.

In addition to winning the conference tournament, MCC placed second at the NCCA IIA National tournament. They finished with a 24-9 record, the most wins in school history.

- Nathan Kluttz

DEFENSIVE WALL

Aaron Bates and Jeff Martens apply the defensive pressure against an Ozark player. The MCC men's basketball team beat Ozark twice this season: 71-59 and 78-67.

ORGANIZATION

Nathan Kluttz looks to set up the offense, as his center position job. He is a team leader both on and off the court.

WORKING IT IN

Holly Helmers looks to pass the ball inside to one of her teammates in the post position.

SIGN LANGUAGE

Angie Epps, MVP of the conference and the region, communicates with the team and helps to organize the next play.

High Expectations

Women's Basketball

The Lady Crusaders basketball team entered the 2002-2003 campaign with high expectations of improving upon their 28-4 record from a year ago and earning another trip back to the national tournament. The season began with great promise as the ladies defeated teams like Ozark, Hesston, and the 2000 NCCAA National Champions, Mid-America Bible College. It wasn't until the 17th game of the season that MCC lost its first game. The loss was to NAIA opponent St. Mary's College and ended their record winning streak of 16 games. The ladies would lose only four more times throughout the season to finish with an overall record of 28-5. Along the way the team matched their total victory mark at 28 games and earned a second trip to the national tournament. They also went undefeated in the regular season conference at 13-0, took second at the conference tournament, and captured their second straight regional championship.

-Coach Scott McFall

WE'RE ALL IN THIS TOGETHER

Fun and Games

Let the Fun Begin . . .

MCC students have a variety of ways to relieve the stress of college life. Some participate in intramural softball. Others put their own teams and fun together. It is not uncommon to see a variety of students shooting hoops on the slab or throwing balls around the courtyard.

A few students bike or run while others find sedentary activities to pursue.

Playing video games in the men's dorm is another way students relieve the stress that comes from studying.

Students find lots of interesting ways to spend their free time after classes are done for the day. Whenever students are playing fun games, one can always be sure there is more than one student involved. After all, it is always "the more the merrier."

LET'S DANCE . . .
Kahla Atherton, Cliff Bragg, Seth Taylor, and Bethany Bates dance at the freshman class function.

FROM DOWNTOWN

Meaghan Smith launches the three point shot at the City Auditorium during the infamous half-time shootout.

PLAY BALL!!

Bryan Durham plays a relaxing game of catch on the courtyard in front of Johnson Hall.

TRYING TO CROSS THE RIVER

Sarah King hangs on to Shawn Baird while he carries Josh Hatton across the river.

SLAB BALL ROCKS

Juelienne Reid, Fred, Travis McKinley, and an unknown friend enjoy a fun game of basketball on the slab.

FUN IN THE SUN

Ray Toyne, Eric Brunt, and Joe Schutte play in a pick-up game in the Memorial Stadium at Kansas State University.

SHE SHOOTS, SHE SCORES!!

Haley Valentine spots up and shoots the basketball from the free throw line on the slab.

HOW DEEP DOES IT GO?

Craig Patrick, Cory Kitch, Josh Collinsworth, Richard Coughlan, Eli Sweany, Phil Appel, Barrett Case, and Bryan Durham go to the bottom of the deepest hand-dug well.

TUESDAY NIGHT CLASS

From this angle, everyone is paying attention in Rusty Thornley's Comparative Religions class from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m.

PERSONAL ATTENTION

The 16:1 faculty to student ratio allows professor Wes Paddock to share a laugh with Evan Cullins.

Julie Delort's speech class is helping Mitchel Diemer get more comfortable in front of an audience.

MCC's gifted faculty brings not only impressive academic credentials, but also a variety of ministry backgrounds into the classroom. Students receive a solid Biblical education, a sturdy foundation in their area of study and a broad understanding of "leadership" for the church today.

Education is calling for more experiential and group forms of learning. One MCC course that is especially positive is Church Administration. In this team-taught course, students are assigned to groups which simulate church staffs and/or church leadership. As a part of their simulation, students work with mission statements, job descriptions, strategic plans, and action plans.

I'LL HELP YOU, IF YOU HELP ME

Sarah King and Chelsea Bahr share ideas in class. Communication and teamwork are important to many assignments.

Christian Leadership Training

"Our faculty, our focus on leadership, and our relationship with KSU places MCC in one of its strongest academic positions in its 75-year history." -- Randy Ingmire

LEADERSHIP SIMULATION

Daniel Roach, Nick Pannone, Chris Ensley, Rebekah Johnson, and Alicia Buchholz explain their group's work in Church Administration class.

WORKING THROUGH THE ANSWERS

Mark Smith appreciates the fact that he can come in and take the test he missed in class.

READY OR NOT, IT'S TEST TIME

Annie Lewis concentrates on the material as the professor reviews for the test.

LAP TOPS IN CLASS

Daniel Howell and Scott Collins are absorbing everything Randy Ingmire, VP for Academics, is saying as he moonlights as a professor.

Adult Education-LEAD

Offering adults an opportunity to finish their college degree one night a week

STUDY BUDDIES

Lori and Wes Chambers, husband and wife in the Upsilon cohort, support each other in their degree quest.

PERSONAL ATTENTION

Betty Newsome, Pi cohort, enjoys an encouraging hug with Mike Sexton, one of her professors.

IT'S A LONG DAY

Working until 5:00 and attending class from 6:00-10:00 p.m. makes for a long day for Randy and Cyndi Slover of the Xi cohort.

SUPPLY AND DEMAND

Professor Dale Levering brings economics alive for all of the adults looking to enrich their management potential.

SERIOUS ABOUT FINISHING
Gladys Thomas of the Xi cohort is ready to finish her degree. Currently she is an administrative aid at Master Teacher.

TEAMWORK

Tonja Dancy, Chris Poersch, and Monte Poersch of the Psi cohort provide friendship, support, and encouragement to each other throughout their program.

SMALL CLASSES

Students do not get lost in a large class. A small group of 10-15 stays together for the two years of the program. The Psi cohort meets on Tuesday evenings.

Sharon Berner is the heart and soul of the LEAD program.

Sharon Berner, Director of Adult Education, is the recruiter, secretary, bookstore, quiz coordinator, academic counselor, faculty liaison, student cheerleader, financial aid consultant, and rock of patience for all of the students and professors in the LEAD program.

Adults who want to enhance their management, communication, and decision making skills are attracted to this convenient program. Sharon is the friendly face and caring person that helps to keep them here. She walks with each student through the two-year cycle and is the first one to celebrate with them at graduation.

Sharon herself is a 1998 graduate of the program. She went on to complete her masters in educational administration in 2002. Approximately 210 adults have graduated from MCC with a bachelor of science in management and ethics since its inception in 1997.
